COMBINING THE CRAFTSMAN

NO. 126: CRAFTSMAN STONE AND SHINGLE HOUSE

YOU are thinking about a home: the beauty of it: the permanence of it: its special fitness for the lives of those whom it will shelter.

We have prepared TWO HUNDRED HOUSE PLANS designed by CRAFTSMAN ARCHITECTS under the personal supervision of Gustav Stickley, the original craftsman. These plans are complete in every detail and may be yours at a nominal cost. Other plans in various styles of architecture most suitable for the building of truly artistic homes are in course of preparation by leading American architects.

Write to THE ART WORLD and accept the advice of our Home Department which will cheerfully be given without expense to you. Put your own architect in charge.

Build a true CRAFTSMAN home! A shack of logs, bungalow, cottage, or more pretentious house will be distinctive if built from CRAFTSMAN HOUSE PLANS

A CORDIAL Invitation is extended to our Art-Loving Patrons to inspect the New Galleries and the wonderful collection of Oriental Art.

A lighted lamp is the most conspicuous object in a room; it should be a thing of beauty in complete harmony with its surroundings.

A distinctive Chinese lamp is sure to become the center of decorative interest in any interior, and is particularly pleasing and perfectly appropriate in period rooms.

In considering the lighting of your home in a decorative sense, a visit to the Farmer collection of distinctive lamps will afford a most gratifying solution of your problem.
